

Study Team responsibilities for scheduling inpatient study visits on 9A with short notice

The following steps must be completed by the study team immediately following enrollment of patient:

Study MD must be available to admit subject on day of admission (for inpatient stays only) and available on call throughout the duration of the scheduled visit.